

What was the rental count for each family-friendly category ?

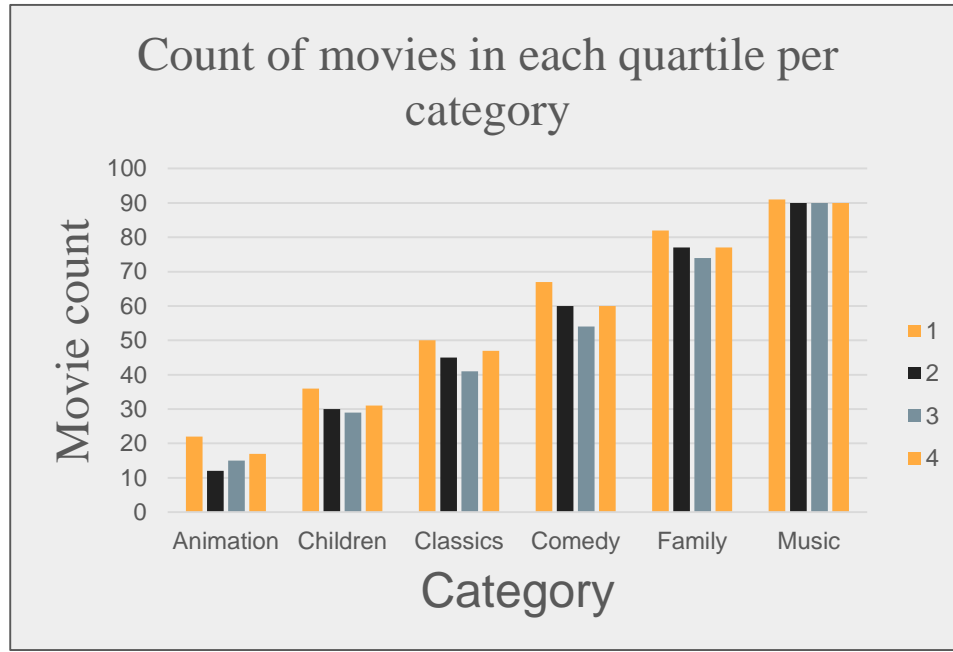

We can see that movies in the animation category had the highest rentals and movies in the music category had the lowest rentals.

What was the maximum rental duration for movies in family-friendly categories?

We can see that each category had the same maximum rental duration.

What is the count of movies within each combination of film category for each corresponding rental duration category?

Music category has the highest count of movies in each quartile compared to other family-friendly categories.

How do the two stores compare in their count of rental orders during every month for all the years?

The rental orders across the two stores were similar. Store 1 had a slightly higher rental order.